HIGHER EDUCATION IN EMERGENCIES

NAIROBI, SEPTEMBER 10-21, 2018

unige.ch/genevasummerschools
This course will explore:

• Post-secondary education in emergency and protracted settings
• The role of universities as humanitarian actors
• Innovative solutions to concrete challenges
• Connected learning pedagogies
• The potential of Open Educational Resources
• Quality guidelines for the design and delivery of higher education in emergencies programs
• Real-world case studies through high-level seminars and the Capstone project

Faculty include field and academic experts from UNHCR, InZone, INEE – International Network for Education in Emergencies, Jesuit Worldwide Learning, BHER – Borderless Higher Education for Refugees, Australian Catholic University, Kenyatta University, Purdue University, Kepler.org, Princeton, MIT.